Lombard Park District Recognized for Excellence in Financial Reporting

The Lombard Park District has once again earned national recognition for financial excellence, receiving the Government Finance Officers Association's (GFOA) Certificate of Achievement for Excellence in Financial Reporting for its Annual Comprehensive Financial Report (ACFR) for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2024.

This award honors governmental entities whose financial reports go beyond basic requirements and exemplify best practices in accounting and reporting. The report was reviewed and praised for clearly explaining the financial information while meeting GFOA's high standards for transparency and accuracy.

The Certificate of Achievement represents the highest level of recognition in governmental financial reporting. Receiving this recognition reflects the Lombard Park District's continued commitment to fiscal responsibility, accountability, and communication with residents, stakeholders, and governing bodies.

To learn more about the Lombard Park District's financial reporting or this recognition, please contact Director of Finance and Personnel, Jessica Ramirez, at jramirez@lombardparks.com.
